FIRST SEMESTER 2015-16
COURSE HANDOUT

DSE CL ZG628T DISSERTATION

Instructor-in-charge: Dean, WILP Division

Instructors: All Supervisors

SCOPE OF THE COURSE

This course provides an opportunity for the student to do some significant research and development work in assigned areas of professional interest. Each student will work under the overall guidance and supervision of a senior professional chosen from within the organization. This work should be of relevance to the professional work environment of the student, and beneficial to organization.

The course shall end with a well-defined Final Dissertation Report, which describes the investigations, achievements and conclusions of the dissertation work. The course shall enable the student to be trained in research and development methodology and presentation of the work in the form of a technical report.

OPERATION OF THE COURSE

1. Each student should identify a topic that is of academic relevance to his/her professional environment and the MS Software Engineering degree programme, and work under the guidance and supervision of a senior professional within his/her project team. The dissertation work should result in significant benefits for the professional work environment of the student. Each dissertation project should be done independently by only one student. Two or more students cannot do a joint / combined dissertation work.
2. The student should prepare a detailed outline of the dissertation work in consultation with his/her Supervisor. Current literature (journals, books etc.) must be methodically reviewed and the status of the work in the field must be considered. The detailed outline of the work must reflect a survey of the current literature in the same area and must include topic of research, objective, background of previous work in the area, methodology and a plan of work along with references and bibliography.
3. The student should regularly interact with his Supervisor and present seminars and submit reports as per schedule given in the calendar. Other professional colleagues having expertise in the relevant domain may also be requested to attend the seminars.
4. The Supervisor shall announce the Mid-semester grade to his/her student and send the Mid-Semester Evaluation Form to the BITS Coordinator in due course.
5. At the end of the dissertation, the student should submit two word-processed copies of the Final Dissertation Report and Abstract to the Supervisor as per schedule. Supervisor shall retain one copy of the final report and send the other copy after the final seminar and viva-voce examination along with the Final Evaluation Form and Dissertation Abstract to the BITS Coordinator.

General Guidelines for the Dissertation Supervisor

- Supervisors are requested to go through the Dissertation Handout carefully and understand the scope, objectives and methodology of a Dissertation project.
- The Supervisor should assume the role of a mentor to the student for the dissertation. He/She should guide the student through the dissertation project and evaluate the progress on a regular basis, and also recommend a suitable grade at the end of each semester.
- The Supervisor should set high quality standards for the dissertation work and motivate the student to work hard and show tangible results according to a well-defined plan.
- The Supervisor should encourage the student to explore various sources and discover the ideas and knowledge pertaining to the dissertation work.
- The dissertation students are to be treated as full-time students and full-time employees at the same time. Hence, no concession on quality or quantum of work should be made with respect to their job responsibilities or their dissertation work.
- Dissertation requires a lot of hard work. The student should be urged to allocate a fixed, but substantial amount of time each day to the dissertation work, and record the progress made on a daily basis.
- The Supervisor should monitor the progress of the dissertation through weekly interaction with the student. A specific time can be fixed for the weekly interaction with the student. If the progress of the dissertation work is not satisfactory, the supervisor should counsel the student and suggest ways to improve.
- The Supervisor is responsible for the periodic evaluation of the dissertation and submission of the completed evaluation forms by the due dates specified.
- The supervisor, if he / she desires, can request some of his/her colleagues who may be interested in the dissertation work, to attend the mid-semester and final seminar/viva.
- The supervisor should conduct the final evaluation independently according to the schedule and submit the evaluation and the report to the BITS Coordinator.

Onsite Students:

If the student is deputed onsite during the dates for evaluation, he/she need necessarily be present for final seminar/viva/demo in Bangalore. No makeup is allowed and no extension of date is possible

EVALUATION SCHEDULE

S. No.	Component	Weight age	Evaluation to be duly completed and submitted by the Supervisor to BITS Coordinator latest by
1	Detailed Outline of Work	10%	TBA
2	Mid. Sem. Evaluation	30%	TBA
3	Final Evaluation Seminar / Viva 30% Final Report 30%	60%	TBA

Evaluation in various components shall take into account work progress and achievements, technical/professional competence, documentation and expression, initiative and originality, punctuality and reliability, self-reliance and acquisition of special skills. It is the responsibility of the student to interact regularly (at least once a week) with his/her Supervisor and discuss the progress of the work and plan subsequent activities. The details of time, venue and mode of each evaluation component are to be decided by the Supervisor, so that the evaluation can be conducted as per schedule given above.

Final Grading

Final Grading will be done by the Supervisor on the basis of the progress made by the individual student towards attaining the overall objectives of the Dissertation work. Although marks are assigned for various evaluation components, the final grade shall be specified only as one of the following qualitative grades namely, EXCELLENT / GOOD / FAIR / POOR.

Note:

The Supervisor shall conduct the final viva-voce and evaluate the Final Dissertation report, and recommend a final grade, and send a copy of the final report and the final evaluation sheet to the BITS Coordinator by the due date.

The final dissertation reports and the final evaluation forms, which are submitted to the BITS Coordinator, will be sent to BITS. A panel of examiners chosen by BITS would evaluate the final reports independently, and then examine the grades recommended by the supervisors, and finalize the grade to be awarded.

If the quality of dissertation work of the student is not found to be acceptable by the supervisor or the panel of examiners from BITS, the student might be reported as Not Cleared (NC) in Dissertation, which would require the student to register afresh for dissertation in a subsequent semester.

Guidelines for preparation of the Final Report
